

A RAILWAY HORROR.

A Passenger Train Plunges into a Swollen River in Iowa.

Heavy loss of life—Many Drowned and Others Seriously Injured.

Des Moines, Iowa, April 2.—A terrible accident occurred here today when a passenger train, consisting of 10 cars, plunged into a swollen river, killing at least 100 persons and injuring many more. The train was en route from Chicago to St. Louis, and was carrying a large number of passengers. The accident occurred at a point where the river had recently risen, and the train was unable to cross the bridge. The cars were thrown into the water, and many of the passengers were drowned. The bodies of many of the victims have not yet been recovered, and the search for them is being continued.

It was with great difficulty that the passengers could be rescued, owing to the fact that the water was very deep. The train was carrying a large number of passengers, and many of them were seriously injured. The accident occurred at a point where the river had recently risen, and the train was unable to cross the bridge. The cars were thrown into the water, and many of the passengers were drowned. The bodies of many of the victims have not yet been recovered, and the search for them is being continued.

THE GLORY OF A MAN IS HIS STRENGTH.

And this strength is not only physical, but mental. It is the ability to overcome all obstacles and to achieve one's goals. This strength is the result of a vigorous constitution, and it is this that makes a man a man.

THE 100 THOUSAND.

This is the number of people who are suffering from the effects of the war. It is a terrible number, and it is a reminder of the human cost of the conflict. We must do all that we can to help these people, and to bring about a speedy end to the war.

THEY ON THE FLOOR OF THE TRAIN.

This is the scene that greeted the rescuers when they reached the site of the accident. The floor of the train was covered with the bodies of the victims, and the air was filled with the cries of the survivors. It was a terrible sight, and it was a reminder of the human cost of the war.

FELL INTO MOLTEN IRON.

This is the story of a man who fell into a vat of molten iron while working in a factory. The man was seriously injured, and he is now recovering in a hospital. The accident occurred while the man was working on a piece of machinery, and he was not wearing the proper safety gear.

THE STRIKERS RESUME WORK.

This is the news that the strikers have resumed work at the factory. The strike has been called off, and the workers have returned to their jobs. This is a relief for the management, and it is a sign that the strike has been successful.
